

Media Contact:
Sabina Covo
305-381 8831
Gordon Reyes

For Immediate Publication

Gaita Enterprises, Inc. a Real Estate Developer committed to increasing the availability of affordable homes in Miami-Dade County participated in the Liberty City Trust's joint Jobs and Housing Fair

Miami, FL – The Liberty City Trust, Office of Commissioner Michelle Spence- Jones and Veterans Employment and Transition Services, Inc. hosted last Friday March 16th, 2007 a Joint Jobs and Housing Fair in where Gaita Enterprises Inc. participated.

The fair was a free event that included local public and private employers, HUD Certified Housing Counselors, financing for getting your home, and low income rental housing programs.

Samuel A. Gaita, CEO of Gaita Enterprises, was present at the fair to present to the community his brand new project in Liberty City "Gaita Gardens"; completely remodeled 2 bedrooms, one bathroom condos with bright open floor plans, starting in the $160,000's.

Note to Editor: Pictures Attached.

About Gaita Enterprises Inc.

Headquartered in Miami, FL, Gaita Enterprises, Inc. is a Real Estate Developer committed to increasing the availability of affordable homes in Miami-Dade County by developing high quality low cost homes for the low to very low income residents of Miami. Gaita Enterprises Inc uses the latest building materials and methods for the building of affordable homes, incorporating modern conveniences and amenities commonly associated with much higher priced luxury style homes. Under the leadership of Samuel A.

Gaita, President and CEO, Gaita Enterprises proudly combats the affordable housing shortage in Miami Dade County.